

NORTHWOOD-KENSETT DESCRIPTORS OF LEARNING--3RD GRADE READING

Standard	1st Quarter	2nd Quarter	3rd Quarter	4th Quarter
Use grade level comprehension strategies to understand text. (RL.3.1)	Able to answer who, what, when and where questions from grade level text.	Introduce why questions from grade level text.	Able to put into practice any question about grade level text.	Ongoing practice/reteach and application.
Uses speaking and listening skills to explain and obtain information. (RF.3.4)	Introduce and model active listening/speaking with a partner.	Ongoing practice/reteach and application.	Ongoing practice/reteach and application.	Ongoing practice/reteach and application.
Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing. (W.3.5)	Introduce writing process by emphasizing importance of writing skills.	Explore prewriting techniques.	Guide revision to generate alternatives to improve writing skills.	Provide instruction in writing processes and rules
Know and apply grade-level and word analysis skills. (RF.3.3)	Determine word meaning.	Identify and understand uses synonyms and antonyms to assist in determining the meaning of words.	Identify and understand how prefixes/suffixes and root words change meaning.	Uses multiple strategies to determine meaning for grade level text.